TEN CENT BALL

FOR NEWARK FANS. Federals Plan Reduce Prices and Place a Team in New York.

Federal league has announced that reported.
"We have considered the ten-cent proposition for some time," said Mr. Glimore, "and intend to try it out in Newark. On the success made there. our future plans in this direction will entirely depend. Business just now is bad in Newark, and we recently have received many letters from fans there saying they would like to pat-ronize our team but could not afford to pay the prices asked. In order that everybody may attend, we have reduced all the bleacher seats to ten scored in the ninth inning when, with the bases full, Killifer threw wild to third and Hinchman scored. Alexander with the plan to invade Manhattan, be said he did not think that the depression would last through the winter, and that next season he looked for better times,

Asked if the plan of campaign decided upon by the league involved the starting of minor leagues, somewhat on the order of the Colonial, Glimore answered emphatically in the negative. He said he never was in favor of any movement looking to the establishment of minor leagues, that there were plenty of ambitions ball players to be had whose one thought was to play in the big league, and that the minors were not a necessity as a preparatory school.

President Glimore announced that the scale of prices at Newark will be 10, 25 and 50 cents, with boxes at $1.
